PacifiCorp; Notice of Filing

May 14, 1999.

Take notice that on May 13, 1999, PacifiCorp filed a correction to Richard T. O'Brien's testimony which was filed with the Application in this docket.

Specifically, the name "ScottishPower" should be substituted for the name "PacifiCorp" at the end of the 17th line on page 4 of Mr. O'Brien's testimony.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest such filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 FR 385.211 and 385.214). All such motions and protests should be filed on or before May 24, 1999. Protests will be considered by the Commission to determine the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection. This filing may also be viewed on the Internet at <http://www.ferc.fed.us/online/rims.htm> (call 202-208-2222 for assistance).

Reliant Energy Gas Transmission Company; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

May 14, 1999.

Take notice that on May 7, 1999, Reliant Energy Gas Transmission Company ("REGT"), formerly NorAm Gas Transmission Company, tendered for filing its FERC Gas Tariff, Fifth Revised Volume No. 1 superseding Fourth Revised Volume No. 1, to be effective June 6, 1999.

REGT states that the purpose of this filing is to reflect its name change to Reliant Energy Gas Transmission Company and also to make minor ministerial changes.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room. This filing may be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.fed.us/online/rims.htm> (call 202-208-2222 for assistance).

Western Gas Interstate Company; Notice of Request for Waiver

May 14, 1999.

Take notice that on May 7, 1999, Western Gas Interstate Company (WGI), 211 North Colorado, Midland, Texas 79701, tendered for filing a petition for waiver of the electronic communication and Internet transaction requirement of the Commission's Order Nos. 587, et seq. WGI states that it is a small company located in a discrete geographic area with only five customers, and that the cost of compliance is prohibitive. Further, WGI states that all gas on its system is delivered to end users and municipal distribution systems, and that no gas is delivered for further transportation to any interstate or intrastate pipeline. According to WGI, its customers have never released capacity or used its existing electronic bulletin board, and make their nominations directly to other pipelines that control all system interconnects.

WGI states that copies of its filing have been mailed to all of its jurisdictional customers and to affected state regulatory commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.
